

SHARON STONE AND MATTHEW BRODERICK AT THE 42nd TFF

The two Hollywood stars will attend the Torino Film Festival to present two of their cult films and to receive the “Stella della Mole” award

Sharon Stone, an absolute diva of the silver screen, and Matthew Broderick, one of the most representative actors of his generation, will be present at the 42nd Torino Film Festival. The two planetary stars will present two of their most famous movies to the audience and will receive the prestigious “Stella della Mole” film award, which is given to prominent exponents of international cinema.

Sharon Stone will catapult the TFF audience into the western atmosphere of The Quick and the Dead by Sam Raimi, a movie she also co-produced and in which she plays a beautiful and deadly gunslinger alongside Gene Hackman and two then-emerging actors who were destined to leave their mark, Leonardo Di Caprio and Russell Crowe.

Matthew Broderick, who will arrive in Turin in the company of his wife, the actress Sarah Jessica Parker, will tell the audience about his relationship as a young actor with Marlon Brando during the shooting of The Freshman, in which he co-starred; the film will be screened as part of the retrospective dedicated to Brando.

The Torino Film Festival is realized by the National Cinema Museum of Turin and takes place with the contribution of the Directorate General for Cinema and Audiovisual of the Italian Ministry of Culture, the Piedmont Region, the City of Turin, the Fondazione Compagnia di San Paolo, and the Fondazione CRT.
